Welcome to Canterbury Cathedral for this Service

The Choir of Canterbury Cathedral comprises separate treble lines of boy choristers (aged 7-13) and girl choristers (aged 12-18), as well as 12 professional adult singers, known as Lay Clerks and Choral Scholars. These musicians continue a centuries-old tradition of singing at the Cathedral that dates to its foundation by St Augustine in 597AD.

Today's service is the last at which the Choir will sing before commencing its summer break. On this occasion we bid farewell to six boy choristers, Angus, Jeremy, Theodore, Cesar, Gabriel and Oren, and to three girl choristers, Lauren, Adelaide and Florence. Their contribution to the life of the Choir during recent years has been immense; we wish them all the very best of luck in the next stages of their lives. At the same time, we hope that they will always consider Canterbury Cathedral to be home.

Additionally, we bid farewell to two of our four Choral Scholars who have spent the past academic year with the Choir. Zachary and Sonny will both continue further studies in singing at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, and at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama respectively; we wish them the very best as they pursue these exciting opportunities. We are delighted that Caroline and Oliver will remain with the Choir as they take up positions as Lay Clerks.

During the Choir's summer break, Cathedral services will be sung by a variety of visiting choirs. The Cathedral Choir will resume its duties on Sunday 1 September.

*The Precentor and choir sing the Preces

O Lord, open thou our lips
and our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

O God, make speed to save us.
O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
*as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.*

Praise ye the Lord.
The Lord's name be praised.

Music: William Smith (c. 1603-45)

Psalm 66.1-8

O be joyful in God, all ye lands :
sing praises unto the honour of his Name, make his praise to be glorious.

Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works :
through the greatness of thy power
shall thine enemies be found liars unto thee.

For all the world shall worship thee :
sing of thee, and praise thy Name.

O come hither, and behold the works of God :
how wonderful he is in his doing toward the children of men.

He turned the sea into dry land :
so that they went through the water on foot; there did we rejoice thereof.

He ruleth with his power for ever; his eyes behold the people :
and such as will not believe shall not be able to exalt themselves.

O praise our God, ye people :
and make the voice of his praise to be heard;

Who holdeth our soul in life :
and suffereth not our feet to slip.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Magnificat

My soul doth magnify the Lord :
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded :
the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth :
all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me :
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him :
throughout all generations.
He hath shewed strength with his arm :
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat :
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things :
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel :
as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be :
world without end. Amen.

Music: Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924) in A

Nunc Dimittis

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace :
according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen : thy salvation;
Which thou hast prepared : before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles :
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be :
world without end. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth:
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

The Precentor and choir sing the Versicles and Responses

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Sit or kneel

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.*

O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.
And grant us thy salvation.

O Lord, save the King.
And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Endue thy ministers with righteousness.
And make thy chosen people joyful.

O Lord, save thy people.
And bless thine inheritance.

Give peace in our time, O Lord.
Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

O God, make clean our hearts within us.
And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

Music: William Smith (c. 1603-45)

The Collects

Lord of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of thy name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both, our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that, by thee, we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Sit as the choir sings

Anthem

I was glad when they said unto me : We will go into the house of the Lord.
Our feet shall stand in thy gates : O Jerusalem.
Jerusalem is built as a city : that is at unity in itself.
O pray for the peace of Jerusalem : they shall prosper that love thee.
Peace be within thy walls : and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Words: Psalm 122.1-3, 6-7

Music: Charles Hubert H Parry (1848-1918)

Prayers concluding with

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit
be with us all evermore.
Amen.

During the singing of the hymn, those Choristers who are leaving process to the High Altar with the Dean, the Precentor, and the Director of Music

Angel-voices ever singing round thy throne of light,
angel-harps for ever ringing,
rest not day nor night;
thousands only live to bless thee
and confess thee
Lord of might.

³Yea, we know that thou rejoicest
o'er each work of thine;
thou didst ears and hands and voices
for thy praise design;
craftsman's art and music's measure
for thy pleasure
all combine.

²Thou who art beyond the farthest mortal eye can scan,
can it be that thou regardest
songs of sinful man?
Can we know that thou art near us,
and wilt hear us?
Yea, we can.

⁴In thy house, great God, we offer
of thine own to thee;
and for thine acceptance proffer
all unworthily
hearts and minds and hands and voices
in our choicest psalmody.

⁵Honour, glory, might, and merit
thine shall ever be,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
Blessed Trinity.
Of the best that thou hast given
earth and heaven
render thee.

Words: Francis Pott (1832-1909)

Tune: ANGEL VOICES

AM 589

Once the collection has been received, the leaving Boy and Girl Choristers are presented with a bound copy of Handel's Messiah.

Informal words are spoken and then the Dean blesses the leaving Choristers

Loving God, the saints and angels delight to worship you in heaven. We thank you for all those who have sung your praises in this Cathedral through the centuries and all that they have brought to this community. We pray for Angus, Jeremy, Theodore, Cesar, Gabriel, Oren, Lauren, Adelaide, and Florence who leave us as choristers today. Surround them with your love and bless them in their life, that all they say and do may give you the glory. Give to us even now glimpses of your beauty and bring us to see you face to face in glory.
We make our prayer in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
